INTRODUCTION

The Physis Scotland Diploma in Counselling Supervision programme is an integrative supervision training drawing on TA philosophy and based on a wide range of theories. The Diploma is aligned with the BACP Supervision Core Competencies.

Starting in October 2024, the Physis Scotland Diploma in Supervision course will be delivered over 10 days of highly interactive and experiential training, spread over a 8-month period.

This dynamic training will enable you to:

- Develop an in-depth knowledge of several models of supervision, both developmental and task focussed
- Establish a clear ethical framework for your work as a supervisor, and enable your supervisees to develop their own ethical thinking and practice
- Understand the differences between therapeutic work and supervision, and be able to work at the boundary of these aspects whilst maintaining the role of supervisor
- Learn supervision skills for working with both novice and experienced counsellors, and apply appropriate interventions to working with both groups
- Understand and critique applications of supervision for both individual and group supervision
- Develop your identity as a supervisor based on your own philosophy of supervision.

Applicants must have a COSCA Diploma in Counselling or equivalent minimum level of counselling/psychotherapy training, have worked as a counsellor or psychotherapist for 2 years post Diploma qualification and completed at least 450 hours of practice as a counsellor or psychotherapist. Applicants must be in ongoing supervision for their clinical practice. A basic knowledge of Transactional Analysis would be an advantage, for example attendance at a TA101 or similar.

In addition, applicants must be either practicing as a supervisor or will have the opportunity to supervise at least 2 supervisees working with adults over the duration of the course. Applicants currently not practicing as a supervisor will be supported in identifying the placement setting where they will acquire the 24 hours of supervised supervision required for the Diploma award and will have a "supervision of supervision" contract in place with a Physis Scotland approved supervisor, before commencing the training.

VENUE

Physis Scotland's Diploma in Counselling Supervision course will be delivered in-person and take place at 22 Drumsheugh Gardens Edinburgh EH3 7RN. All training weekends will start at 9.30am and finish at 5pm on Saturdays and 4pm on Sundays.

ASSESSMENT

Formative assessment

This will be made by the course tutor during the training days, evaluating skills development and understanding of theory demonstrated during the training process.

For the Diploma award, the Supervisor of Supervision will be asked to complete an End of Year report. In addition, students will keep a Reflective Learning Journal for the duration of the programme. A sample extract (2-3 pages) from the student's Reflective Learning Journal must be submitted to the course tutor before the final training weekend.

Summative assessment

All written assignments will be graded according to the post graduate assessment scales found in the supervision training handbook.

Essay (3000 words) - Outline and critically evaluate your philosophy of supervision, including underpinning theories and the ethical framework within which you practice.

Transcript Analysis – Complete two transcripts of 5-minute excerpts of live supervision from your practice, including appropriate “front sheet” information, a commentary and a 500-word analysis of the work done in each, referring to supervisory theory.

Case study (3000 words) - Describe and critically evaluate your chosen models of supervision, demonstrating how your models correspond with your philosophy of supervision. Please use two case studies from your Supervision practice.

*All assignments must be submitted in order to complete the Diploma.

Assignment Submission Dates

Transcript 1 will be submitted by 1st April 2025

The Essay will be submitted by 1st May 2025

The Case study will be submitted by 1st September 2025

Transcript 2 will be submitted by 1st September 2025

Marking

All assignments will be marked by the course tutor in the first instance. A sample of assignments will be double marked anonymously by at least one other marker, before being sent to the Physis Scotland External Examiner for moderation.

FEEDBACK

On completion of all coursework, your course tutor will provide you with written feedback in the form of an End of Year Report.

Student feedback is collected informally throughout the course, and through a feedback form twice a year, usually mid-year and during the last training weekend. At any point students are invited to contact their course tutor if they are in need of academic or pastoral support.

Administrative queries should be directed to Olivia Burroughs, Physis Scotland Administrator on enquiries@physisscotland.co.uk or 07927 557217.

PLACEMENTS

All students are required to make arrangements for a supervision practice placement which:

- Offers supervision to qualified counsellors, or to trainee counsellors who have ongoing additional supervision with a qualified supervisor
- Enables audio recording of supervision sessions
- Enables students to complete 24 hours of supervision practice either during or after the programme has ended
- Enables students to have experience of both online and face-to-face supervision practice
- Is supervised at a ratio of 1 hour's supervision of supervision to every 6 hours of supervision practice
- Is supervised by an experienced supervisor with a recognised supervision qualification at Diploma level or by a PTSTA or TSTA

Physis Scotland can support supervision trainees in accessing the cohort of Diploma in Counselling trainees who would be interested in receiving additional free supervision from Trainee Supervisors during the Diploma in Supervision programme.

Supervision trainees are asked to contract with any counsellors being supervised by them that the supervisee counsellor will have a discussion with their existing Principal Supervisor to let them know they are receiving secondary supervision with a trainee supervisor, and to agree what elements of their practice they are bringing to each.

Physis Scotland students need to complete 24 placement hours and must have experience of both online and face to face work. These hours are to be met within 6 months of completing the taught component of the programme.

Placements with UK Counselling Network CIC

Physis Scotland in partnership with the Award Winning Social Enterprise UK Counselling Network CIC are passionate about delivering accessible, quality counselling and psychotherapy to all. We recognise that accessing quality therapy can be difficult because of lengthy waiting lists and high costs and are delighted to offer our low-cost counselling service to people throughout Scotland on a low income. The service is staffed primarily by existing trainees in Advanced clinical training, all of whom have been endorsed to practice, are in regular supervision and are on our Diploma in Counselling using TA programme.

Physis supervision students can apply to be placed on the list as extra supervisors for the therapists. Please be in touch with Sally Edmonson, Placement Co-ordinator if this is of interest to you. Sally's email contact is placement@ukcounsellingnetwork.co.uk
